SENATE BILL

No. 603

Introduced by Senator Ortiz

February 18, 2005

An act to amend Sections 13776, 13777, and 13779 of, and to add Section 13777.2 to, the Penal Code, relating to law enforcement.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 603, as amended, Ortiz. Law enforcement: anti-reproductive rights crimes.

Existing law requires the Attorney General to assume specified duties relating to planning, information gathering, and analysis with respect to anti-reproductive-rights crimes, as defined, including consultation with specified subject matter experts. Existing law also required the Attorney General to make a report to the Legislature in 2005 on the issue of anti-reproductive-rights crimes. Existing law is to be repealed as of January 1, 2007, unless a later enacted statute deletes or extends that date.

This bill would add and delete specified organizations from the list of subject matter experts. This bill would also require the Commission on the Status of Women to convene an advisory committee that would be responsible for reporting, as specified, to the Legislature and specified agencies on the implementation of the Reproductive Rights

Law Enforcement Act and the effectiveness of the plan developed by the Attorney General.

Because the bill would extend the operative date of provisions that would impose reporting requirements on local governments, the bill would impose a state-mandated program.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that the bill contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement for those costs shall be made pursuant to these statutory provisions.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: yes.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 13776 of the Penal Code is amended to
2 read:

(d) The Attorney General shall implement this section to the extent the Legislature appropriates funds in the Budget Act or another statute for this purpose.
